

St. Andrews 21-5 Edinburgh

St Andrews finally took down Edinburgh in a surprisingly one-sided varsity match at New Olympia. After an agonising 1 goal defeat at last years Varsity match Saints were determined to turn the tables on their local rivals. Edinburgh struggled to defend against the Saints' counter-attack heavy offense, and St Andrews' strong defense was equally effective. By the end of the first quarter, St Andrews held a 6-0 lead after goals from Kim Watson, Ruby Versfeld, Laura Jimenez and Meg Hedrick. Saints continued to pile in the goals, extending their lead to 14-1 at the half with Rebekah Kaufman and Caitlin Donnelly scoring their first goals as part of the St Andrews team! By the end of the game, the score was 21-5 to Saints with Versfeld, Watson and Jimenez putting in 5 goals apiece. Watson impressed us all with seven assists, and Versfeld drew 5 exclusions. Throughout the match, Alex Maher (in goal) impressed with her saves. As Twitter would say: holy moly, what a goalie! This win sets Saints up for a strong beginning to the season in their opening BUCS match, away in Manchester on October 10th.

Saints: Alex Maher, Amelia Fletcher, Brynn Walsh, Kate MacKie, Nikki Thompson, Rebekah Kaufman, Becky Yates, Ruby Brown, Ruby Versfeld, Meg Hedrick, Kim Watson, Laura Jimenez, Caitlin Donnelly

UStA Waterpolo

UStA Waterpolo

ustawaterpolo

saintswaterpolo